Why we collect and use this information

We use the pupil data:

- to support pupil learning
- to monitor and report on pupil progress
- to provide appropriate pastoral care
- to assess the quality of our services
- to comply with the law regarding data sharing
- Provide activities from external providers

The lawful basis on which we use this information

We collect and use pupil information under Article 6 and Article 9 of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR):

- Consent: the individual (or their parent) has given us clear consent to process their personal data for a specific purpose.
- Legal obligation: the processing is necessary for you to comply with the law (not including contractual obligations).
- Vital interests: the processing is necessary to protect someone's life.
- Public task: the processing is necessary for you to perform a task in the public interest or for your official functions, and the task or function has a clear basis in law.

Collecting pupil information

Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. For example: pupil permissions.

In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing pupil data

- We hold pupil data for no longer than is necessary. Full details of data retention lists can be found in the Records Management Society's (RMS) Retention Guidelines for Schools.

Who we share pupil information with

We routinely share pupil information with:

- schools that the pupil's attend before / after leaving us
- our local authority including Educational Psychology Service
- Other local authorities
- the Department for Education (DfE)
- Other authorities such as Social Services
- The NHS such as school nursing teams, Camhs, Occupational and Speech & Language Therapy etc
- Sports partnership and coaching providers
- Companies who provide catering, leadership and data services to the school
- Online service providers

Why we share pupil information

We do not share information about our pupils with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We share pupils' data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring.

We are required to share information about our pupils with our local authority (LA) and the Department for Education (DfE) under section 3 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

We share information with:

- Other schools to ensure smooth transitioning and the well being of our pupils.
- Other local Authorities where they have a statutory responsibility for our pupils and or provide the school with support services e.g. ICT and GDPR support
- Other authorities, Social services to safeguard our pupils and provide early help
- NHS and school nursing service to provide vaccinations and statutory checks and early help
- Other companies to analyse pupil results and data on schools behalf.
- Online and cloud services to access their systems e.g. email, file storage, programmes and applications.

Data collection requirements:

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education (for example; via the school census) go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

To find out more about the NPD, go to

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>.

The department may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested: and
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.

For more information about the department's data sharing process, please visit:

<https://www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>

For information about which organisations the department has provided pupil information, (and for which project), please visit the following website:
