The Kings Coronation - Variety show:

What an absolute treat we all had this afternoon watching our very own 'Royal Variety Show' in the presence of King Charles and the Queen Consort (Mr Douglas and Mrs Souter)!!

We had singers, dancers, comedians, pianists, gymnasts to name a few, all showing their fantastic talents - what a fantastic way to spend a Friday afternoon. Mrs Hosey 'topped the bill' singing for the children who thoroughly enjoyed it!

Thank you to everyone - it's been a super week. Thank you to all parents/carers as the children looked great today.

All children should have brought home a King Charles commemorative coin to keep, reminding them of this auspicious occasion.

We hope you all have a lovely weekend.

Year 6 SATS:

Year 6 SATS take place next week. Please can all of the Year 6 children be prompt for school each morning so that we can start the test on time.

New school roof:

As many of you are aware we have had issues with the roof for a number of years. We have good news to share in that the roof is being replaced with work starting in a few weeks. We will keep you updated as to the exact dates the work will start and any adaptations we need to make as the work proceeds. The Local Authority are managing the project.

Bikes and scooters:

Parking of the bikes and scooters when the roof is being replaced will be an issue due to scaffolding therefore, we will pause with these for the moment until we are clear what the plan can be.
